

March 12, 2011

To My Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

On Saturday April 9, 2011 St. Ephraim Syriac Orthodox Church will be hosting a guest lecture. The guest speaker's name is Mark Walia and he is a professor of History at California State University, Fullerton. Recently, Mr. Walia wrote a book discussing the differences between Islam and the West. The book is entitled A Tale of Two Cultures: Islam and the West.

In the lecture on April 9, Mr. Walia will cover the basic aspects of the book, like how both Islam and the West view religious freedom.

I cordially invite you to come to this lecture and listen to someone who took a huge leap into the unknown to understand current affairs between two disparate cultures.

The location and time of event is as follows:

Saturday April 9, 2011
7:30 pm
St. Ephraim Syriac Orthodox Church
900 N. Glenoaks BLVD,
Burbank, CA 91502

I hope to see everyone there. If you know anyone who would be interested in coming to this lecture, please send this letter to them. Youth would benefit highly from this lecture, so please invite any person from the age of 17 and above.

Thank you.

Your brother in Christ,

Christopher Asmar